SkySparc's growth continues to reward

Stockholm, November 19, 2012 – SkySparc receives the Gazelle award for three years running

SkySparc, the financial consultancy trusted by central banks, banks, corporate treasury and asset managers, has once again been named one of Sweden's fastest growing companies by Dagens Industri, the leading financial newspaper. This is the third consecutive year that SkySparc has received the Gazelle award, which recognises Sweden's fastest growing companies.

Thomas Bergqvist, Partner, SkySparc said: "At SkySparc, we're privileged to work with some of the world's leading financial institutions. The quality of our client relationships, and the insights they share, have contributed greatly to our success. Our continued strong growth is also due to the skill and expertise of our consultants who deliver the advice and solutions that really make a difference for our clients."

Mattias Sandström, Partner, SkySparc agreed. "We focus on delivering excellence and outstanding customer service every day. By constantly investing in training for our colleagues and continuous enhancement of SkyREPORT, we set the foundation for growing our business further in the future."

The criteria set for Gazelle companies for 2012 were:

- To double turnover between 2008 and 2011
- To increase turnover every year over the past three years
- The total operating results for the period must be positive
- The company's finances must be sound.
